

2020 Studio Tour Checklist for Tour Artists

- Be sure to add Committee@PrescottStudioTour.com and Info@PrescottStudioTour.com to your email address book so you don't miss any information about the Tour and Tour events.
 - Emails with the subject "Studio Tour Artist" contain information you need about the Tour.
 - Emails with the subject "Studio Tour" are also sent to the general public and contain general information about the Tour.
- Mark your calendar with Important Tour Dates. A list is available on the Tour website under More / Materials for Tour Artists.
- Review the approaches to your studio to determine how many and where to put Tour directional signs (Hosts only).
- Participate in the Raffle. Artists are encouraged to select a work to raffle. Visitors love the opportunity to win a unique piece of art. Raffle proceeds fund:
 - Children's art programs provided in the Quad-City area.
 - Next year's Tour.
- Review the Tour website – www.PrescottStudioTour.com – to learn more about the Tour, its artists and art centers, and the people and businesses who are Art Supporters.
- Promote the Tour by:
 - Alerting friends and family to your participation in the Tour.
 - Sending emails or postcards to your personal lists.
 - Mentioning the Tour on your Facebook page, in your blog, and on your website.
 - Using the hashtag #PrescottArtistStudioTour when posting to your Instagram account.
 - Using the wording under About on the Tour website in your marketing efforts.
 - Using the Tour logo in your marketing efforts on your website, Facebook page and blog. Tour logos in various sizes will be emailed to you and available on the Tour website under More / Materials for Tour Artists.
